Why this was made

I often wonder how someone got from point A to point B. I thought it would be cool to show folks the steps, words I picked to get to the end of the Wordles of July. There is often no rhyme or reason. There is some logic however, and moving letters around, Exhausting the alphabet too as once you use a letter you immediately know if it is part of the word as well as placed correctly. So sometimes you just want to exhaust letters. The biggest problem there is you cannot just throw 5 letters out, they must make a word. Fun time. And NO i didn't play every day.
